GREATER IOWA CREDIT UNION
GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE INFORMATION AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS APPLICATION PACKET

Credit Unions are not-for-profit cooperatives owned by their members, with a volunteer Board of Directors. This unique philosophy is what sets credit unions apart from other financial institutions.

The Governance Committee is appointed by the Board of Directors to recruit qualified candidates and is made up of Directors who will not be standing for re-election in the upcoming year. The Board tasks the Governance Committee with assessing that all candidates meet the minimum qualifications and can be 'recommended' to the membership as meeting the criteria of skills, knowledge, experience and attributes required of a Director and necessary to strengthen the existing Board. The Governance Committee will nominate at least one member for each board vacancy, including any unexpired term, for which elections are being held. Board Members are elected to serve a three-year term.

The Board of Directors set policy and direct Management in the overall strategic operation of the Credit Union. In fulfilling its fiduciary duties, the Board provides oversight, due diligence, and strategic direction. It is essential that the Directors have the skills, qualifications and expertise to carry out these responsibilities. In general, Directors must have the ability to act in the best interest of the credit union, to operate as a team at the Board level and to be able to speak with one voice once a decision has been made.

Board Members will be nominated based on a demonstrated record of possessing the qualifications and competencies necessary for effective governance and leadership and every prospective board member should have the ability and be nominated based on the ability to serve, one day, as Chairperson.

ATTRIBUTES

Greater Iowa Credit Union expects each Board Member have the willingness and time to serve. They must also possess personal integrity, the highest ethical standards, objectivity, the ability to act without a real or perceived conflict of interest and the ability to work productively with others.

EXPERIENCE

Because governance responsibilities are significant, Board Members must bring a high level of competency and experience to the job. They must possess the capabilities to exercise leadership, teamwork/consensus-building, systems thinking, financial skills and sound judgment on difficult and complex matters that come before the Board. They must have a core knowledge of the cooperative financial sector and the concepts, principles and values of the cooperative environment, have the ability to assess the implications of financial statements and auditor's reports, have the ability to bring a business perspective to Board deliberations, have the ability to critically assess business strategies and operations, and have an understanding of corporate governance and the fiduciary duties and responsibilities of the Board of Directors.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The following are the most common responsibilities and duties of the Board of Directors, but they are not all inclusive. Although each director must exercise his or her independent judgment in carrying out these responsibilities and in making credit union decisions, the board acts only in official meetings and not as individual directors.

General Responsibilities

The Board of Directors ensures that the credit union:

1. is capably managed by a well-qualified president/CEO.
2. makes strategic plans, sets goals and policies, and establishes objectives.
3. complies with all applicable laws and regulations.
4. operates using sound business practices.
5. fulfills its purpose of making affordable loans and encouraging thrift.
6. has adequate financial reserves to cover delinquent loans and other potential losses.
7. maintains a conservative investment program.
8. maintains an adequate insurance program to protect against potential losses due to unauthorized or illegal acts and other kinds of hazards.
9. maintains an adequate security plan.
10. maintains a disaster recovery plan.
11. obtains competent professional advice, including legal and audit.

Furthermore, the Board of Directors is responsible for evaluating its own performance to ensure compliance with these responsibilities.

GICU Board of Directors Job Description

Specific Duties:

1. Attend monthly and special Board meetings.
2. Maintain confidentiality in all matters regarding the credit union.
3. Employ and evaluate the president/CEO.
4. Review and approve the budget on an annual basis.
5. Reveal any conflict of interest regarding issues coming before the Board.
6. Monitor performance through regular review of financial reports and budgets.
7. Approve by-laws and amendments thereto.
8. Approve all credit union policies including, but not limited to, personnel policies, credit policies, investment policies, and asset/liability management policies.
9. Declare dividends and provide for adequate reserves.
10. Approve contracts for legal service and audit services.
11. Approve the acquisition of and sale of real estate held for credit union operation purposes.
12. Approve loan charge-offs.
13. Read reports from examiners and auditors, review their recommendations, and act on those deemed in the best interest of the credit union.
14. Serve on Board committees.
15. Review the insurance program annually.
16. Appoint the nominating committee.
17. Set annual meeting of the membership.
18. Follow up on board decisions.
19. Participate in appropriate board training and education meetings as approved.
20. Read appropriate materials about the environment in which the credit union operates.

Education Requirements

All members of the Board of Directors will remain informed through education and training regarding local, state, and national credit union matters in order to ensure that he or she possess adequate knowledge of the affairs of the credit union.

All members of the Board of Directors will complete, within the first year of service on the Board, a Credit Union Basics for Directors training course. This course provides an overview of what makes credit unions unique in the world of financial services, including the credit union structure.
