24. Secrecy of PIN. If we have issued a PIN to you, you agree to keep your PIN secret, and you also agree that you will not write the PIN on your ATM/Debit Card or on any item you keep with your cards. You understand any joint owner you authorize to use an access code may withdraw or transfer funds from any of your accounts. If you fail to maintain the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your EFT services immediately.
25. Non-Request for PIN Disclosure Procedures. No employee or agent of the Credit Union will request an ATM Cardholder to divulge their Personal Identification Number (PIN) in either an oral or written manner. In addition, a merchant receiving your Card should never request your PIN security code from you. If any of our employees or agents do request your PIN number, please notify us immediately with the name of the employee or agent who requested your PIN Number.

26. Limitations of ATM Transactions. There are no limitations on the number or dollar amount of deposits you may make at any ATM during its 24-hour operating cycle. However, to protect against possible losses, if you have Classic checking, Basic Blue checking or a Business checking account, there is a $500 maximum for pin-based and $3,000 for signature based transactions. You agree to pay the full amount of it to us, together with an overdrawn account charge pursuant to the fees applicable for your share draft account per occurrence. If you have an overdraft line of credit, an advance on your line of credit may be made to cover the overdraft, and you will pay that advance in accordance with the conditions of your line of credit plan, depending upon which form of overdraft protection you have selected. If there are not sufficient funds to make a transfer according your overdraft line of credit, or if you have no overdraft protection, then such overdraft will be paid to us as provided in the first sentence of this section or paid through our Privileged Courtesy Pay Program.
28. Crediting of Deposits and Payments. Deposits or payments made in an ATM, whether in cash, check, draft or money order, are subject to verification, and the funds of such deposits and payments accounts may be held until they can be collected from the machine, verified and entered into our accounting systems. If you place a check, draft or money order in the machine as a deposit or payment, it is subject to collection in accordance with your account agreement with us, Regulation CC, and our Funds Availability Policy Disclosure.
29. Foreign Transaction Currency Conversion. If you effect a transaction with your Mastercard Debit card in a currency other than US Dollars, Mastercard International Incorporated will convert the funds into US Dollars and charge your account in US Dollars. Mastercard International Incorporated will use its currency conversion procedure, which is disclosed to institutions that issue Mastercard cards. The conversion rate used by Mastercard International Incorporated to determine the transaction amount in US Dollars for such foreign transactions is generally either a government mandated rate or a wholesale range of rates determined by Mastercard International Incorporated for the processing cycle in which the transaction is processed. The currency conversion rate used by Mastercard International Incorporated is the applicable central processing rate, which rate may vary from the rate Mastercard itself receives and, may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date. A foreign transaction is any transaction that you complete or a merchant completes on your card outside of the United States, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands or U.S. Military bases. If there is no currency conversion but the transaction was completed in a foreign country ("single-currency transaction"), there is a 1% fee assessed to the transaction; including cash advances, purchases and credits to your account. If there is a "multi-currency" conversion, there is also a 1% fee of the transaction assessed. An international transaction as a transaction where the issuer's country (i.e., the card-issuing financial institution's country) is different than the merchant's country. Thus, for example, a transaction over the Internet could qualify as an international transaction. These fees will be charged to your Mastercard account for each foreign transaction.
30. Advisory Against Illegal Use. You agree not to use your card(s) for illegal gambling or other illegal purpose. Display of a payment card logo by, for example, an online merchant does not necessarily mean that transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which the cardholder may be located.
31. Governing Law. This Agreement and Disclosure is governed by the Bylaws of Greater Iowa Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, state laws and regulations and local clearinghouse rules, as may be amended from time to time. Any disputes regarding this agreement shall be governed by the laws of the United States and the State of Iowa.
32. Enforcement. You agree that you will be liable to us for any loss, cost, or other expenses we incur as a result of your failure to comply with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and as we may amend from time to time. You authorize us, without prior notice, to deduct any loss, cost or other expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees that are incurred by us for your failure to comply with the terms of this agreement. You also agree that we may deduct any loss, cost or other expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees that are incurred by us for any action we may take to enforce this Agreement from your accounts with us.
33. Consumer Liability:
- Consumer Liability. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your Automated Teller Machine Cards (ATM Card), Mastercard Debit Card and/or PIN(s) or your TellerPhone audio response access service PIN has been lost or stolen, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check or your Greater Iowa Online Banking system has been accessed without your permission. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). If you tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Automated Teller Machine Card (ATM Card), Mastercard Debit Card or your PIN(s) and/or your TellerPhone audio response access service PIN, and/or your Greater Iowa Online Banking system has been accessed without your permission, and you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your card or otherwise accessed your account through one of the methods set forth above in this paragraph without your permission. Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by card, code or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we may extend the time periods.
  - Special Liability Protection Rules for Mastercard Debit Card. You will not be liable for any unauthorized transactions using your Mastercard Debit Card, if: (i) you can demonstrate that you have exercised reasonable care in safeguarding your card from the risk of loss or theft, and (ii) and, upon becoming aware of such a loss or theft, you PROMPTLY report the loss or theft to us at (800) 296-9064 or write to: Greater Iowa Credit Union, 1509 Baltimore Drive, Ames Iowa, 50010 IMMEDIATELY !!! This zero liability rule will apply to all transactions conducted with a MasterCard branded card, including PIN-based transactions at Point of Sale and ATM, as long as the cardholder has exercised reasonable care in safeguarding the card from risk of loss or theft, and, upon becoming aware of any such loss or theft, PROMPTLY reports that loss or theft to this Credit Union.

WIRE TRANSFER NOTIFICATION

(Uniform Commercial Code Article 4A)

The following rules shall apply to all wire transfers services provided by the Credit Union.

Greater Iowa Credit Union may accept, on your behalf, payments to your account that have been submitted by Fedwire. Your rights and obligations with respect to such transfers shall be governed and construed in accordance with Regulation J, Subpart B-Funds Transfers Through Fedwire. These regulations and state law are applicable to funds transfers involving your account.

If you give us a payment order that identifies a beneficiary (the person to whom you are wiring funds) by name and account or some other identifying number (such as a Social Security, Taxpayer I.D. or driver's license number), we may pay the beneficiary on the basis of the number provided to us by you and consider that number to be proper identification. This will be true even if the number you provided to us identifies a person different from the named beneficiary, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation.

If you give us a payment order that identifies the beneficiary's financial institution in the funds transfer by name and Routing and Transit ("R/T") or other identifying number, we, as well as the receiving financial institution, may rely on the number provided to us by you as the proper identification. This will be true even if the number provided identifies a financial institution that is different from the named financial institution, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation. Therefore, it is in your best interest to contact the receiving institution to acquire the appropriate wire transfer instructions so that you may feel confident that your money will arrive safely. You, the member, are ultimately responsible for providing accurate information regarding funds transfers and are consequently liable for any losses or expenses should an error occur.

You may not be provided with separate notification each time we receive a wire transfer into your account. We will provide you with notification of an incoming wire transfer as part of your periodic statement. In the event we accept payments to your account through one or more Automated Clearing Houses ("ACH"), the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association ("NACHA") will be applicable to ACH transactions involving your account. These rules do not require that we provide you with next day notice of receipt of an ACH item. Therefore, we will provide you with notification of the receipt of these items as part of your periodic statement.

In addition, if we are ever obligated to pay interest on the amount of the transfer, you will be paid interest on a daily basis equal to the current dividend rate that is otherwise applicable to the account from which the funds transfer should have occurred. In the event we are ever liable to you for damages due to a transfer, your damages will be limited to actual damages only. We will not be responsible for incidental or consequential damages, court costs or attorney's fees, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation.

We may accept, on your behalf, payments to your account which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses and that are not subject to the Electronic Funds Transfer Act ("Regulation E"). Your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be governed and construed in accordance with the applicable Federal Reserve Bank Operating Circular. Whenever an ACH is used as part of a transaction, its rules will govern that part of the transaction. Where none of the above stated rules apply, the transactions contemplated by this agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Iowa, including Article 4A of the Iowa Uniform Commercial Code.

Credit given by us to you with respect to an ACH entry is provisional until we receive final settlement for the credit entry through a Federal Reserve Bank. If we do not receive final settlement, you are hereby notified that we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with the credit entry. Moreover, you are hereby notified that the party making payment to you (originator) shall not be deemed to have paid you the amount of the credit entry.
